COMFORT COLLECTION

A Custom Broadloom and Carpet Tile Collection

What is old will become new again. Through the millennial generation's penchant for vintage, nostalgia and reuse, we will see more of this sub category of the Maximalist Style.

The many facets of the pandemic increased the desire for visual comfort, familiar items and a connection to others of significance in our lives.

Grandmillennial Style or "Granny Chic" is described as the use of traditionally lined furniture/antiques, chintz fabrics, layered patterns and quirky personalization.

This style will be modified for hospitality by refined palettes of rich colors, vintage artworks and cohesive patterning used in beautiful compositions to enhance the guest's sense of familiarity and comfort.
